TEAM DYNAMICS

Both Gert Minnaar and Ilza Engelbrecht have years of township establishment and general conveyancing experience, initially establishing their skills when they were employed in the Johannesburg and Pretoria deeds offices respectively and thereafter honing their skills and specialising in private conveyancing practice.

AREAS OF PRACTICE INCLUDE:

- Research and obtaining of all information and data regarding the status of land as well as the compilation of reports for clients
- Preparation of conveyancer's certificates for township establishment purposes
- Compliance with conditions of establishment for proposed townships and the opening of township registers
- Attendance to the registration of transfer of stands to subsidy beneficiaries in townships on a mass conveyancing basis
- Opening of sectional title registers as well as the simultaneous registration of transfer of the sectional title units together with the mortgage bonds for end users
- Registration of transfers and mortgage bonds for end users in residential and business office park cluster developments
- Negotiation for land acquisition for development purposes
- Issuing of expropriation notices and the registration of the expropriation transfers or servitudes in favour of the expropriating authorities
- Registration of subdivisions and consolidations
- Transfer of all types of properties and registration of mortgage bonds

To this skills set, Amanda Seemund, who started her conveyancing career in 2000 and was admitted as an attorney and conveyancer in 2014, adds the following to our areas of practice:

- Transfer of bonded housing and FLISP transactions in mixed housing developments
- Attendance to the registration of transfer of stands to subsidy beneficiaries in townships on a mass conveyancing basis
- Estate agent transfers as well as all other types of transfers
